

When Darkness Falls

Song Lyrics

1. THE FERRY

On the water, just out of view
There's a ferry, waiting for you
On the water, out where the waves touch the sky
There's a ferry, drawing nigh.

*So I wait, for the dawn
Every day, will hasten the morn
I am waiting, gazing across the empty sea
I will wait 'til my eyes can see*

There is moonlight, stars in the sky
Every moment, passing us by
There's a ferry, making it's way to the shore
Drawing closer, through the storm

I am waiting for the ferry
I am waiting for the morning
I am watching, I am gazing
Out across the empty sea
I am watching for the sunrise
For the passing of this moonlight
I am reaching through the silence
Out across the empty sea
