

When Darkness Falls

Song Lyrics

4. MOONLIGHT

Lost in the darkness now, standing
Taken beyond the light
There is fear in your eyes
Haunted by broken dreams, taken
Far beyond what you've seem,
To the future, from the past

There is darkness,
Where there were shadows long ago
There is silence
Stretching beyond the life you've known
I have seen, who you are
Looked for the love in your power
I have given you my heart.

Lost is the darkness now, standing
Under the sharpest light
Shining in to your mind
Long for the darkness now, hiding
I have seen in your heart,
And I know you as you are

Wait in the darkness now, broken
Long for the moonlit hour
In the night I will come
Come for the one I own, taken
From the light of the sun
To the darkness, long ago.

Wait for the moonlit night, broken
Then I will come for you
Know me
