

When Darkness Falls

Song Lyrics

5. HIDDEN

Took a walk in the woods today
Seeking solace amongst the branches
Rewinding the words that could have been
Storm clouds in the sky today
Caught up in this mess of branches
Obscured by the darkness, still unknown

*Crying out for the sun
Trying hard to ignore the shadows
Keeping watch for the sun
Standing covered amongst the branches
So far away, so drenched in rain
Hidden people, waiting for the sun.*

Found a log in the woods today
Perfect colours engraved upon it
Buried deeper, beyond my passing gaze
Made me think of the world I've known
Hidden beauty obscured by others
Rich patterns denied the light of day

Standing still in the woods today
All the sounds of the world seem far away
Looking up at the silent shifting light
Crying out for the sun to shine
For the colours that darkness still denies
Crying out for the beauty lost in pain
