Sometimes I wonder, and want to remember
The passing of memories, passing of dreams
So many times I have paused at the way-side
Searching for landmarks in consciousness streams.

Land-locked and love lost, ambitions dismembered
Long lost ideas floating by on the wind
Hidden agendas respected by members
Revealed by the passing of seasons and dreams

*So many dreams are left by the wayside
So many boulders hinder the streams
So many clouds would cover the rainbows
Know there's a love that's stronger than these
Stronger than any power of destruction
Stronger than darkness, stronger than pain
Light of the morning, melting in sunshine
Bathed in this love, let hope rise again.*

Intricate patterns are tangled in loneliness
Hopeless ideals lie estranged and disowned
Juxtaposition of mixed bag emotions
Jangle and rattle like dry lifeless bones

Complex convergence of pathways and paragraphs
Drawn to the love that would heal and combine
Ceaselessly forming and calling and hoping
Drawing you close with a peace that's divine.
