Beyond – Song Lyrics

6. Morning Light

Morning light
Playing on the waiting water
Shining bright
Speaking of the day
Sounds of night
Buried in the passing darkness
Lost from sight
Hidden far away

You have called, and so I come
Across the water
I have watched the morning sun
Arriving with the dawn
Every ounce of strength is gone
I touch the water
Reaching out to find new hope
When hope is gone

Day by day
Drawing just a little closer
Far away
Shines the morning sun
So much pain
Lies upon the waiting water
So afraid
Still I journey on

My strength is gone
But still I come
I will go on
Called across the water,
Reaching out to the sun

You have called, and so I come
Across the water
I have watched the morning sun
Arriving with the dawn
Every day I will go on
Across the water
'Til I find the light
And touch the morning sun
'Til I find the hope
That comes when hope is gone
