
Beyond – Song Lyrics

4. Silence

Tired of chasing shadows
Tired of all this pain
Tired of holding on, in case
The sun might shine again.
Hoping for the future
Hoping for today
Longing for an answer
Hoping for a different way

Calling out to You
And yet there is no answer
There's only silence
Silence won't be moved
Calling out to You
So frightened of the future
Here in this silence
Calling out to You

Day by day
Seeking a new beginning
Some way
Beyond this time of pain
Today
You ask me to believe in
Your way
Your love despite this pain

Frightened of the future
Frightened of today
Tired of finding reasons
Why you seem so far away
Searching for an answer
Searching for your face
Finding only emptiness
Where I had hoped for grace

Calling out to You
And yet there is no answer
There's only silence
Silence won't be moved
Calling out to You
In search of new beginnings
Here in this silence
Calling out to you

Day by day
Seeking a new beginning
Some way
Beyond this time of pain
Today
You ask me to believe in
Your way
