1. When the party's over
And the music gone
Shrouded now in darkness
With the memory of a song.
Do you hear?
Do you hear?
Calling you by name
There's a voice that you thought
You would never hear again.

Will you turn?

Will you turn?

Will you turn again to Me?

I have given my life

I have died to set you free.

I am calling.

Do you hear Me?

Will you come and follow Me?

2. Faces, friends and photos
Laughter in their eyes.
Life and hope are mingled
With an emptiness inside.
Do you hear?
Do you hear?
Calling you by name
There's a voice that you thought
You would never hear again.

Chorus

3. Fear and expectation
Jostle for a place.
Longing for the freedom
That you see within His face.
Do you hear?
Do you hear?
Calling you by name
There's a voice that you thought
You would never hear again.

Will you turn?

Will you turn?

Will you turn again to Me?

I have given my life

I have died to set you free.

I am calling.

Do you hear Me?

Will you come and follow Me?

.....turn and follow Me?
